

Matthew 13

King James Version (KJV)

(This chapter has some very important parables – concerning who the Kenites are)

13 The same day went Jesus out of the house, and sat by the sea side.

<sup>2</sup> And great multitudes were gathered together unto him, so that he went into a ship, and sat; and the whole multitude stood on the shore. (Jesus was using the boat and the shore like an amphitheater – so that many people could hear Him speak)

<sup>3</sup> And he spake many things unto them in parables, saying, Behold, a sower went forth to sow; (Sowing by broadcasting with a handful of seeds, and broadcasting them with the hand)

(This can be an analogy for preaching the Word of God to people. The seed is the Word of God. Christians are broadcasting God's Word into the world)

<sup>4</sup> And when he sowed, some seeds fell by the way side, and the fowls came and devoured them up: (No seeds can sprout on hard, packed soil that people walk on. The seeds were eaten up by the birds)

<sup>5</sup> Some fell upon stony places, where they had not much earth: and forthwith they sprung up, because they had no deepness of earth: (The earth wasn't deep enough to support the roots, so the plants sprouted quickly and then they dried up under the sun. Their roots had no depth)

<sup>6</sup> And when the sun was up, they were scorched; and because they had no root, they withered away. (Shallow people won't stick with the Word long enough to learn it in depth, and to do it)

<sup>7</sup> And some fell among thorns; and the thorns sprung up, and choked them: (The thorns are also used as a symbol for Satan. His false doctrines work to change the Word of God in order to make it useless)

<sup>8</sup> But other fell into good ground, and brought forth fruit, some an hundredfold, some sixtyfold, some thirtyfold. (All three harvests were equally successful, based on their capabilities. God is happy with the harvest that a preacher brings in, whatever the number. It is based of God's gift to the preacher, and his capabilities)

<sup>9</sup> Who hath ears to hear, let him hear. (Those who are spiritually awake will understand these parables)

<sup>10</sup> And the disciples came, and said unto him, Why speakest thou unto them in parables?

<sup>11</sup> He answered and said unto them, Because it is given unto you to know the mysteries of the kingdom of heaven, but to them it is not given. (This is for the protection of the weak minded, to retain their innocence. Many of them would fail, when confronted by antichrist, so God prefers to let them be innocent and ignorant)

NOTES: (They will be taught during the Millennium. They will be tested after the Millennium period. Those who make it will receive the second resurrection – because they will not be a part of the second death)
Revelation-20:14-15

(The Elect who allow the Holy Spirit to speak through them when they are brought up before antichrist will receive the first resurrection – at the beginning of the Millennium period) Revelation-20:5

<sup>12</sup> For whosoever hath, to him shall be given, and he shall have more abundance: but whosoever hath not, from him shall be taken away even that he hath. (Share what truth you have received and you will be given more)

<sup>13</sup> Therefore speak I to them in parables: because they seeing see not; and hearing they hear not, neither do they understand. (They are aware physically, but asleep spiritually)

<sup>14</sup> And in them is fulfilled the prophecy of Esaias, which saith, By hearing ye shall hear, and shall not understand; and seeing ye shall see, and shall not perceive: Isaiah-6:9

<sup>15</sup> For this people's heart is waxed gross, and their ears are dull of hearing, and their eyes they have closed; lest at any time they should see with their eyes and hear with their ears, and should understand with their heart, and should be converted, and I should heal them. (They're too busy trying to make it in the world, that they have no time to spend learning God's Word) Hebrews-5:11

<sup>16</sup> But blessed are your eyes, for they see: and your ears, for they hear. (These are the Elect)

<sup>17</sup> For verily I say unto you, That many prophets and righteous men have desired to see those things which ye see, and have not seen them; and to hear those things which ye hear, and have not heard them. (The word them was added by the translators. A better translation would be Him <as in Jesus – God in the flesh>)

<sup>19</sup> When any one heareth the word of the kingdom, and understandeth it not, then cometh the wicked one, and catcheth away that which was sown in his heart. This is he which received seed by the way side. (The wicked one is Satan. He tempts people with the ways of the world)

<sup>20</sup> But he that received the seed into stony places, the same is he that heareth the word, and anon with joy receiveth it; (anon = now, immediately)

Example: (I just heard the scriptures for the first time. And now, I know everything about them – that's a false assumption. It takes years of study in order to understand the deeper teachings)

<sup>21</sup> Yet hath he not root in himself, but dureth for a while: for when tribulation or persecution ariseth because of the word, by and by he is offended. (The world ridicules and persecutes Christians. These people can't take the pressure of ridicule from the politically correct critics, so they give it up)

<sup>22</sup> He also that received seed among the thorns is he that heareth the word; and the care of this world, and the deceitfulness of riches, choke the word, and he becometh unfruitful. (world = eon, age)

(These people are too busy trying to make money and to be successful, wheeling and dealing in business. They don't have time to learn God's Word in depth. We see many of these people sitting in Christian churches that only teach traditions of men. They never get past the salvation message)

<sup>23</sup> But he that received seed into the good ground is he that heareth the word, and understandeth it; which also beareth fruit, and bringeth forth, some an hundredfold, some sixty, some thirty. (They are equally successful – based on their capabilities. They understand the deeper teachings; and can pass them onto other people who want to learn. That's what makes them fruitful in God's eyes)

<sup>24</sup> Another parable put he forth unto them, saying, The kingdom of heaven is likened unto a man which sowed good seed in his field: (The word "seed" in Greek manuscripts changes with this verse. It is sperma <Greek> = sperm <English>)

(This is talking about a lineage; an offspring. It's not about agriculture. The serpent <Satan> mated with Eve in the Garden. Later Adam mated with her. She conceived fraternal twins - one from each father. Cain was the son of Satan; Abel was the son of Adam) see Genesis-3

<sup>25</sup> But while men slept, his enemy came and sowed tares among the wheat, and went his way. (tares = Zizania, Zowan)

(Zowan is a plant looks like wheat in its early growth, but produces a non-eatable grain. The zowan are symbolic for the Kenites)

(The enemy is Satan – and his offspring - the Kenites. They are the descendants of his son, Cain) See Genesis-3:15-16

<sup>26</sup> But when the blade was sprung up, and brought forth fruit, then appeared the tares also. (You can tell the tares from the wheat only when the plant is fully matured. By then, your crop is ruined. You can't pull out the tares without destroying the wheat also)

<sup>27</sup> So the servants of the householder came and said unto him, Sir, didst not thou sow good seed in thy field? from whence then hath it tares? (Tares are the Kenites – the sons of Cain, the son of Satan and Eve)

(They have infiltrated Israel <Judaism>, and now Christianity; in order to twist it and pervert it to serve agenda; and pull people away from God through false doctrine)

NOTE: (The war at the end of this Age will be a spiritual war; not the physical war that we see on television. Satan will come in peacefully and prosperously. He will promise prosperity to the people who will worship him. Most of the world will be deceived by his lies)

<sup>28</sup> He said unto them, An enemy hath done this. The servants said unto him, Wilt thou then that we go and gather them up? (Should we destroy the Kenites? They are the children of Satan, after all)

<sup>29</sup> But he said, Nay; lest while ye gather up the tares, ye root up also the wheat with them. (Trying to oust the Kenites now might do more harm than good. Most of them are indistinguishable from true Christians and from the Jews. They have intermixed over the centuries)

<sup>30</sup> Let both grow together until the harvest: and in the time of harvest I will say to the reapers, Gather ye together first the tares, and bind them in bundles to burn them: but gather the wheat into my barn. (Leave them to God. He knows who is who; and He will judge them all fairly for what they do. The harvest is judgment, and the reapers are the angels)

See chapter-3:12 (For the fate of the Kenites)

NOTE: (Jesus said – by their fruit, you will know them. We can know them by their actions. But it will be up to the angels to separate the good from the bad, at the end of this Age. It's only up to us to recognize them and convert them if possible. If not, we are to stay separate from them. If any of the Kenites convert and join Jesus, they have the same chance at salvation as everyone else)

<sup>31</sup> Another parable put he forth unto them, saying, The kingdom of heaven is like to a grain of mustard seed, which a man took, and sowed in his field: (Mustard, one of the smallest seeds, can grow into one of the largest herb plants. It grows into a small tree instead of a bush, like the other herbs)

(If you plant a spiritual seed with the right people, their faith can grow to be a large congregation)

<sup>32</sup> Which indeed is the least of all seeds: but when it is grown, it is the greatest among herbs, and becometh a tree, so that the birds of the air come and lodge in the branches thereof. (The birds that roost in the tree are symbolic for the Kenites. They will always infiltrate a successful church in order to corrupt it and to change its message)

(Satan is called the prince of the air – the prince of vanity and nothingness. He hates to see a successful church that teaches God's Word – chapter by chapter, verse by verse)

<sup>33</sup> Another parable spake he unto them; The kingdom of heaven is like unto leaven, which a woman took, and hid in three measures of meal, till the whole was leavened. (Leaven spreads throughout the entire dough, like spiritual teachings <good or bad>)

NOTE: (In the Bible, leaven is usually symbolic for false doctrine. See the Christian denominations today. They are rife with teaching traditions of men; replacing the Word of God. Very few Christian churches teach the Bible – chapter by chapter; verse by verse – properly translated)

<sup>34</sup> All these things spake Jesus unto the multitude in parables; and without a parable spake he not unto them:

<sup>35</sup> That it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the prophet, saying, I will open my mouth in parables; I will utter things which have been kept secret from the foundation of the world. (The prophet is David in Psalms-78:2)

("foundation" word number 2602 is from the prime 2598 in the Strong's Concordance)

(Foundation of the world = the Katabole <in the Greek>. It was Satan's rebellion against God; and his resulting defeat by God)

NOTES: (During the First Age, Satan's ego grew and grew until he thought he could replace God. He rebelled against God and drew 1/3 of the people with him. He was overthrown and abased. He was judged to death by God for rebelling. God ended the First Age)

(God allowed Satan to be here in the Second Age in order to test us. Will we choose to follow God or will we follow Satan and the ways of this world? <Greed, selfishness, murder, rape, perversion, lust>)

(At the end of this Age, Satan will die for his crimes, as will those who are sentenced to hell. The word hell should be translated – the grave. Hell is not a burning place of endless torture as ignorant preachers teach. Hell just means the death of the soul. Those who "go to hell" will cease to exist)

<sup>36</sup> Then Jesus sent the multitude away, and went into the house: and his disciples came unto him, saying, Declare unto us the parable of the tares of the field. (The disciples still don't get it. God will explain it to them in plain language)

<sup>37</sup> He answered and said unto them, He that soweth the good seed is the Son of man; (Jesus is God in the flesh. God sowed the good seed by His creation. We were all created in our spiritual bodies and lived with God in the First Age. Here in the Second Age, God created our temporary flesh bodies. Those of us who were born as Kenites are the ones who sided with Satan, against God, in the First Age)

<sup>38</sup> The field is the world; the good seed are the children of the kingdom; but the tares are the children of the wicked one; (Children of the Kingdom are the Elect and all those that believe in God - Jews & Christians. The tares are the Kenites – the children of Cain; the son of Satan and Eve)

See John-8:42-44 (Where Jesus dresses down the Kenites)

<sup>39</sup> The enemy that sowed them is the devil; the harvest is the end of the world; and the reapers are the angels. (world = eon, age <in the Greek manuscripts>) (It was badly translated “world” in the English)

See Genesis-3:13-15 (Where Cain came from – Satan seduced Eve)

See Revelation-2:9 and 3:8 (These two churches are the only ones that God approved of – because they teach who the Kenites are and where they came from)

NOTE: (Ignorant preachers teach that they ate a fruit in the garden. The truth is that they were both Adam and Eve were seduced by Satan. Eve conceived from the union and gave birth to Cain. Cain and Abel were fraternal twins – same mother, different fathers. Abel’s father was Adam) Genesis-3:16

<sup>40</sup> As therefore the tares are gathered and burned in the fire; so shall it be in the end of this world. (tares - Zizania, Zowan, a plant that looks like wheat, but produces inedible berries instead of good grain)

(The end of this world will be the end of this Age)

<sup>41</sup> The Son of man shall send forth his angels, and they shall gather out of his kingdom all things that offend, and them which do iniquity;

NOTES: (Look at the damage that the world bankers and secret societies that control politicians do. Look at what international merchants do today in every Christian country. That includes the Western Christians and the Eastern Orthodox Christians and the Jewish nations. They work along with the communists and the Muslims against Christians)

(Meanwhile, the population of good people gets poorer and poorer; while the Kenites steal and connive in order to get richer and richer. Now that they have most of the wealth, they gradually work to divide us in order to take away our civil rights. God will straighten all things out at the end of this Age)

<sup>42</sup> And shall cast them into a furnace of fire: there shall be wailing and gnashing of teeth. (This is the second death – death of the soul. It's called the lake of fire in Revelation. That is only symbolism. When something is burned, it ceases to exist. God doesn't burn people, as ignorant preachers like to teach. They just cease to exist)

<sup>43</sup> Then shall the righteous shine forth as the sun in the kingdom of their Father. Who hath ears to hear, let him hear. (Those who are spiritually awake, let them take note)

(The righteous will shine forth because all evil will be gone forever)

<sup>44</sup> Again, the kingdom of heaven is like unto treasure hid in a field; the which when a man hath found, he hideth, and for joy thereof goeth and selleth all that he hath, and buyeth that field. (The field is the world; the treasure is the truth in God's Word)

(Knowing the truth is worth more than all the wealth of the world; because it will give us immortality with God in the Third Age – the Eternity)

<sup>46</sup> Who, when he had found one pearl of great price, went and sold all that he had, and bought it. (Knowing God's Word and doing it is worth more than all the wealth of this world; which is only temporary)

<sup>47</sup> Again, the kingdom of heaven is like unto a net that was cast into the sea, and gathered of every kind: (All people have the opportunity to find God; either during this Age or during the coming Millennium period)

<sup>48</sup> Which, when it was full, they drew to shore, and sat down, and gathered the good into vessels, but cast the bad away. (Judgment Day - separation of the faithful ones from the evil ones)

<sup>49</sup> So shall it be at the end of the world: the angels shall come forth, and sever the wicked from among the just, (world = eon, age <in the Greek manuscripts>)

<sup>50</sup> And shall cast them into the furnace of fire: there shall be wailing and gnashing of teeth. (This is the second death – death of the soul)

Note: (Those who remain faithful to God against the false teaching of the antichrist will participate in the First Resurrection. Those who come around during the Millennium period will participate in the Second Resurrection. Those who fail both will die) see Revelation-20

<sup>51</sup> Jesus saith unto them, Have ye understood all these things? They say unto him, Yea, Lord.

<sup>52</sup> Then said he unto them, Therefore every scribe which is instructed unto the kingdom of heaven is like unto a man that is an householder, which bringeth forth out of his treasure things new and old. (A householder has the keys – the key of knowledge, in this case) see Proverbs-1:7

(The New Testament & the Old Testament of this Age; and the truth from the First Age)

<sup>53</sup> And it came to pass, that when Jesus had finished these parables, he departed thence.

<sup>54</sup> And when he was come into his own country, he taught them in their synagogue, insomuch that they were astonished, and said, Whence hath this man this wisdom, and these mighty works? (They still didn't get the fact that Jesus was God in the flesh. There is no end to His power and to His authority)

<sup>55</sup> Is not this the carpenter's son? is not his mother called Mary? and his brethren, James, and Joses, and Simon, and Judas? (Jesus' half brothers – sons of Joseph and Mary)

(This was the town where Jesus was raised. The people knew Him when He was a boy)

<sup>56</sup> And his sisters, are they not all with us? Whence then hath this man all these things? (Jesus' half sisters) (Jesus is God. His wisdom is also without bounds)

<sup>57</sup> And they were offended in him. But Jesus said unto them, A prophet is not without honour, save in his own country, and in his own house. (Because they knew Him on a personal basis, they didn't believe He was more than they had ever known. They had seen Jesus raised from a baby to a young man)

(And now, they were seeing Jesus as a wise prophet, with the power over life and death. They just couldn't make the mental adjustment from – Jesus the boy, to Jesus as God with us)

<sup>58</sup> And he did not many mighty works there because of their unbelief. (God won't chase after unbelievers – pearls before swine)
