

Psalm 75

A Psalm or song of A-saph

King James Version (KJV)

75 Unto thee, O God, do we give thanks, unto thee do we give thanks: for that thy name is near thy wondrous works declare.

²When I shall receive the congregation I will judge uprightly. (God speaking) (uprightly- at the set time)

³The earth and all the inhabitants thereof are dissolved: I bear up the pillars of it. Selah. 1Corinthians-15:52, Zechariah-14, 2Peter-3:10

⁴I said unto the fools, Deal not foolishly: and to the wicked, Lift not up the horn: Daniel-7&8 (The little horn – the antichrist)

⁵Lift not up your horn on high: speak not with a stiff neck. (stiff neck- stubborn or arrogant)

⁶For promotion cometh neither from the east, nor from the west, nor from the south. (From the north – Judgment is at the north gate of Jerusalem)

⁷But God is the judge: he putteth down one, and setteth up another.

⁸For in the hand of the LORD there is a cup, and the wine is red; it is full of mixture; and he poureth out of the same: but the dregs thereof, all the wicked of the earth shall wring them out, and drink them. (This is the cup that Jesus asked to pass from Him – the cup of God's wrath)

⁹But I will declare for ever; I will sing praises to the God of Jacob.

¹⁰All the horns of the wicked also will I cut off; but the horns of the righteous shall be exalted. (horns- symbolic of power)

To the chief musician, on Neg-i-noth - Smitings