

Ezekiel 19

King James Version (KJV)

19 Moreover take thou up a lamentation for the princes of Israel,
(This is the king line – possibly Zedekiah. This lamentation is his death song) (He will soon be taken prisoner and killed by the Babylonians)

²And say, What is thy mother? A lioness: she lay down among lions, she nourished her whelps among young lions. Genesis-49 (the lion is the tribe of Judah)

2Kings-23:31 (Manuthiel was Zedekiah's mother)

³And she brought up one of her whelps: it became a young lion, and it learned to catch the prey; it devoured men. (This is Jehoiahaz)

⁴The nations also heard of him; he was taken in their pit, and they brought him with chains unto the land of Egypt.

⁵Now when she saw that she had waited, and her hope was lost, then she took another of her whelps, and made him a young lion. (This is Jehoiakim)

⁶And he went up and down among the lions, he became a young lion, and learned to catch the prey, and devoured men. (He ruled Judah about 11 years)

⁷And he knew their desolate palaces, and he laid waste their cities; and the land was desolate, and the fulness thereof, by the noise of his roaring.

⁸Then the nations set against him on every side from the provinces, and spread their net over him: he was taken in their pit. (This was one of the first sieges of Jerusalem, by Babylon)

NOTE: (Today, in 2024, Israel is again under siege. The Muslim nations have united with Russia and China against Israel. Only the US and Britain still stand with them)

⁹And they put him in ward in chains, and brought him to the king of Babylon: they brought him into holds, that his voice should no more be heard upon the mountains of Israel.

¹⁰Thy mother is like a vine in thy blood, planted by the waters: she was fruitful and full of branches by reason of many waters. (in thy blood = in thy vineyard – bad translation)

2Kings-23:36 (this is probably Zebudah)

¹¹And she had strong rods for the sceptres of them that bare rule, and her stature was exalted among the thick branches, and she appeared in her height with the multitude of her branches. (strong rods = strong sons)

¹²But she was plucked up in fury, she was cast down to the ground, and the east wind dried up her fruit: her strong rods were broken and withered; the fire consumed them. (All her sons amounted to nothing because they went against God's plan for Judah's captivity to Babylon. They all refused to listen to the true prophets; and to go into captivity for 70 years. Try to change God's plan and you will be chastised)

¹³And now she is planted in the wilderness, in a dry and thirsty ground. (Her sons are all dead. She was dead. But her daughters survived and went to Egypt with Jeremiah)

(Later on they went to the British Isles <Glastonbury>. This is in the British history books, not written of in the Bible. They also brought the stone of scone with them – the stone that Jacob slept upon when he had his vision of heaven. The stone is also called Jacob's pillar) see Genesis-28:11-18

¹⁴And fire is gone out of a rod of her branches, which hath devoured her fruit, so that she hath no strong rod to be a sceptre to rule. This is a lamentation, and shall be for a lamentation. (Her sons died because they disobeyed God and tried to stop His plan)

NOTE: (All her sons were dead, but her daughters became queens of Scotland and England. This is history, not in the Bible. In England, Jeremiah was known as Olan Fallah – which means a very wise man. Baruch, his scribe, was also known in England, with Jeremiah)
