

Exodus 19

King James Version (KJV)

19 In the third month, when the children of Israel were gone forth out of the land of Egypt, the same day came they into the wilderness of Sinai. (Sinai = the bush of Yah)

(This is approaching the 50th day after Passover – this 50th day will later become Pentecost)

²For they were departed from Rephidim, and were come to the desert of Sinai, and had pitched in the wilderness; and there Israel camped before the mount.

³And Moses went up unto God, and the LORD called unto him out of the mountain, saying, Thus shalt thou say to the house of Jacob, and tell the children of Israel;

⁴Ye have seen what I did unto the Egyptians, and how I bare you on eagles' wings, and brought you unto myself.

⁵Now therefore, if ye will obey my voice indeed, and keep my covenant, then ye shall be a peculiar treasure unto me above all people: for all the earth is mine: (If you accept Me as your God and keep My law, you will be a special people unto me. Jesus will come through this lineage)

⁶And ye shall be unto me a kingdom of priests, and an holy nation. These are the words which thou shalt speak unto the children of Israel.

⁷And Moses came and called for the elders of the people, and laid before their faces all these words which the LORD commanded him. (People want the rewards and blessings from God, but ignore the "If" condition. This is stupidity at its highest)

⁸And all the people answered together, and said, All that the LORD hath spoken we will do. And Moses returned the words of the people unto the LORD. (They want to do it, but God knows how fickle they are about fulfilling their promises. Some in the group will keep their promises, but they are the few)

⁹And the LORD said unto Moses, Lo, I come unto thee in a thick cloud, that the people may hear when I speak with thee, and believe thee for ever. And Moses told the words of the people unto the LORD.

¹⁰ And the LORD said unto Moses, Go unto the people, and sanctify them to day and to morrow, and let them wash their clothes,

¹¹ And be ready against the third day: for the third day the LORD will come down in the sight of all the people upon mount Sinai. (This third day is the 50th day. Man will receive the Law, directly from God Himself, on the day that will later become Pentecost)

¹² And thou shalt set bounds unto the people round about, saying, Take heed to yourselves, that ye go not up into the mount, or touch the border of it: whosoever toucheth the mount shall be surely put to death: (God will be there in person. Keep your distance while Almighty God is there in person)

¹³ There shall not an hand touch it, but he shall surely be stoned, or shot through; whether it be beast or man, it shall not live: when the trumpet soundeth long, they shall come up to the mount. (This trumpet sounding is symbolic for the end days when the 7th trumpet will announce the return of Messiah and the end of this Age)

¹⁴ And Moses went down from the mount unto the people, and sanctified the people; and they washed their clothes. (They made themselves clean for the presence of God)

¹⁵ And he said unto the people, Be ready against the third day: come not at your wives. (Stay clean and celibate)

¹⁶ And it came to pass on the third day in the morning, that there were thunders and lightnings, and a thick cloud upon the mount, and the voice of the trumpet exceeding loud; so that all the people that was in the camp trembled. (This is the 50th day of the new year) (The voice of God frightened them to near death)

(Very few people have been in the presence of God while living in the flesh. Afterwards, all of them were changed forever. Being in God's presence is life changing)

¹⁷ And Moses brought forth the people out of the camp to meet with God; and they stood at the nether part of the mount. (They were obeying because they were frightened)

¹⁸ And Mount Sinai was altogether on a smoke, because the LORD descended upon it in fire: and the smoke thereof ascended as the smoke of a furnace, and the whole mount quaked greatly. (The whole mountain shook) Acts-2:17, Hebrews-2:14

¹⁹ And when the voice of the trumpet sounded long, and waxed louder and louder, Moses spake, and God answered him by a voice. (The people heard the voice of God, and it was so awesome that it frightened them)

²⁰ And the LORD came down upon Mount Sinai, on the top of the mount: and the LORD called Moses up to the top of the mount; and Moses went up. (By now, there should have been no doubt to these people that there is a God, and Moses is serving Him)

²¹ And the LORD said unto Moses, Go down, charge the people, lest they break through unto the LORD to gaze, and many of them perish. (To see God, they might die. When He is in His natural form, He exists in a different dimension. This is the same dimension that we all existed in during the First Age. When we die, we return to that dimension. They could have died if they had entered into that dimension) see Ecclesiastes 12:6-8

²² And let the priests also, which come near to the LORD, sanctify themselves, lest the LORD break forth upon them.

²³ And Moses said unto the LORD, The people cannot come up to Mount Sinai: for thou chargedst us, saying, Set bounds about the mount, and sanctify it. (This is the third time that God tells Moses to go tell the people not to come up)

²⁴ And the LORD said unto him, Away, get thee down, and thou shalt come up, thou, and Aaron with thee: but let not the priests and the people break through to come up unto the LORD, lest he break forth upon them. (This is their last warning. God knows that some are thinking about it)

²⁵ So Moses went down unto the people, and spake unto them.

(The 10 Commandments are in Chapter-20)
