

Genesis 28

King James Version (KJV)

28 And Isaac called Jacob, and blessed him, and charged him, and said unto him, Thou shalt not take a wife of the daughters of Canaan. (The Canaanites were heathen people, who had mixed with the fallen angels. Later, they would lose their lands to Moses and the 12 tribes of Israel, because they did that)

² Arise, go to Padanaram, to the house of Bethuel thy mother's father; and take thee a wife from thence of the daughters of Laban thy mother's brother. (They were Adamic people who had stayed true to God. Isaac chose the house, not the woman)

NOTE: (In later verses, Jacob would choose Rachel, but God chose Leah to be his first wife)

³ And God Almighty bless thee, and make thee fruitful, and multiply thee, that thou mayest be a multitude of people; (This is the blessing and the genealogy that Jesus would later come through)

⁴ And give thee the blessing of Abraham, to thee, and to thy seed with thee; that thou mayest inherit the land wherein thou art a stranger, which God gave unto Abraham. (This is the Promised Land)

⁵ And Isaac sent away Jacob: and he went to Padanaram unto Laban, son of Bethuel the Syrian, the brother of Rebekah, Jacob's and Esau's mother. (They lived in Syria; but they were not Syrians by heritage. They were direct descendants of Adam. They were a part of the same family as Abraham. Laban's grandfather was Abraham's brother)

⁶ When Esau saw that Isaac had blessed Jacob, and sent him away to Padanaram, to take him a wife from thence; and that as he blessed him he gave him a charge, saying, Thou shalt not take a wife of the daughters of Canaan;

⁷ And that Jacob obeyed his father and his mother, and was gone to Padanaram; (Unlike Esau, Jacob obeyed his parents just as he obeyed God)

⁸ And Esau seeing that the daughters of Canaan pleased not Isaac his father; (Esau only worried about what Isaac thought, not what God thought)

⁹Then went Esau unto Ishmael, and took unto the wives which he had Mahalath the daughter of Ishmael Abraham's son, the sister of Nebajoth, to be his wife. (Esau is going from bad to worse. Ishmael was part Egyptian)

¹⁰And Jacob went out from Beersheba, and went toward Haran.

¹¹And he lighted upon a certain place, and tarried there all night, because the sun was set; and he took of the stones of that place, and put them for his pillows, and lay down in that place to sleep. (It was common to surround yourself with a ring of stones for protection; when sleeping in the desert. The stones keep snakes out)

¹²And he dreamed, and behold a ladder set up on the earth, and the top of it reached to heaven: and behold the angels of God ascending and descending on it. (The ladder is symbolic of the way to heaven – the love of Jesus Christ. Jesus would come into the world through Jacob's descendants. Jesus would later say – I am the way)

¹³And, behold, the LORD stood above it, and said, I am the LORD God of Abraham thy father, and the God of Isaac: the land whereon thou liest, to thee will I give it, and to thy seed; (God is re-stating the promise that He made to Abraham)

¹⁴And thy seed shall be as the dust of the earth, and thou shalt spread abroad to the west, and to the east, and to the north, and to the south: and in thee and in thy seed shall all the families of the earth be blessed. (That's because of Jesus Christ – God in the flesh. He would later come into the world through the descendants of Jacob. All who believe in Jesus are blessed with salvation)

NOTE: (After they were freed from Babylon and Assyria, the 10 northern tribes of Israel migrated over the Caucasus Mountains and were called Caucasians. They settled Europe and North America)

¹⁵And, behold, I am with thee, and will keep thee in all places whither thou goest, and will bring thee again into this land; for I will not leave thee, until I have done that which I have spoken to thee of. (This means - until Jesus has lived in the flesh and blessed the whole world who believe on Him. But, even today, God only leaves those people who leave Him first)

NOTE: (400 years after this verse, God freed the 10 tribes from Egypt through Moses. HE gave them the land that Jacob is on. It was called the Promised Land. They received it, just as God had promised Abraham, and now, Jacob)

¹⁶ And Jacob awaked out of his sleep, and he said, Surely the LORD is in this place; and I knew it not.

¹⁷ And he was afraid, and said, How dreadful is this place! this is none other but the house of God, and this is the gate of heaven. (dreadful = awesome – better translation) (Jesus Christ is the gate to Heaven)

¹⁸ And Jacob rose up early in the morning, and took the stone that he had put for his pillows, and set it up for a pillar, and poured oil upon the top of it. (This stone is still used today, for the coronation of kings and queens of Great Britain & Scotland. Today it is called the Stone of Scone, or the Stone of Destiny)

¹⁹ And he called the name of that place Bethel: but the name of that city was called Luz at the first. (Bethel = the house of God; Luz = almond tree)

²⁰ And Jacob vowed a vow, saying, If God will be with me, and will keep me in this way that I go, and will give me bread to eat, and raiment to put on, (Jacob is taking an oath to God)

²¹ So that I come again to my father's house in peace; then shall the LORD be my God: (If God keeps His Word, I will keep mine. God <Yahoveh> shall be my God forever)
