

Exodus 34

King James Version (KJV)

34 And the LORD said unto Moses, Hew thee two tables of stone like unto the first: and I will write upon these tables the words that were in the first tables, which thou brakest. (God is giving them a second chance)

(Moses is going to have to make a new set of Ten Commandment Tablets because he broke the originals)

² And be ready in the morning, and come up in the morning unto mount Sinai, and present thyself there to me in the top of the mount. (Sinai = the bush of God <Hebrew>. This is the bush that burned but was not consumed)

⁴ And he hewed two tables of stone like unto the first; and Moses rose up early in the morning, and went up unto mount Sinai, as the LORD had commanded him, and took in his hand the two tables of stone.

⁵ And the LORD descended in the cloud, and stood with him there, and proclaimed the name of the LORD. (I Am That I Am = YHVH = Yahoveh)

⁶ And the LORD passed by before him, and proclaimed, The LORD, The LORD God, merciful and gracious, longsuffering, and abundant in goodness and truth, (longsuffering = patient)

⁷ Keeping mercy for thousands, forgiving iniquity and transgression and sin, and that will by no means clear the guilty; visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children, and upon the children's children, unto the third and to the fourth generation. (Quoting from Exodus-20 – His vengeance is only on those children that hate God. If one person in that group loves God, that person is loved by God)

NOTE: (Ignorant preachers teach that god's vengeance can last for three generations on whole families. That's a lie. God's vengeance will last through all generations, but only on those individuals that hate Him. Each person determines their own fate)

⁸ And Moses made haste, and bowed his head toward the earth, and worshipped.

⁹ And he said, If now I have found grace in thy sight, O LORD, let my LORD, I pray thee, go among us; for it is a stiffnecked people; and pardon our iniquity and our sin, and take us for thine inheritance.
(Moses is asking for a second chance for Israel)

¹⁰ And he said, Behold, I make a covenant: before all thy people I will do marvels, such as have not been done in all the earth, nor in any nation: and all the people among which thou art shall see the work of the LORD: for it is a terrible thing that I will do with thee. (terrible = awesome – better translation; the word terrible also meant awesome in old English)

¹¹ Observe thou that which I command thee this day: behold, I drive out before thee the Amorite, and the Canaanite, and the Hittite, and the Perizzite, and the Hivite, and the Jebusite. (These tribes were condemned by God for having mixed with the fallen angels, and for their idolatry, sexual perversions and even human sacrifices. God wanted it ended, so He took their land away from them)

¹² Take heed to thyself, lest thou make a covenant with the inhabitants of the land whither thou goest, lest it be for a snare in the midst of thee: (If you listen to the heathen tribes who live there, they will pervert you also)

¹³ But ye shall destroy their altars, break their images, and cut down their groves: (The groves were where they had fertility rites <orgies> and other perversions to the goddess Ishtar, among others)

(Easter today is derived from this worship of Ishtar, mixed with what should have remained Passover. Christians today don't even realize this. Easter is an insult to God)

¹⁴ For thou shalt worship no other god: for the LORD, whose name is Jealous, is a jealous God: (God created us. HE considers all of us to be a part of His family. He resents those who turn away from Him and delve into perversion and idolatry)

¹⁵ Lest thou make a covenant with the inhabitants of the land, and they go a whoring after their gods, and do sacrifice unto their gods, and one call thee, and thou eat of his sacrifice;

NOTE: (It continues today in all Christian countries through political correctness and socialism. Common sense and moral correctness went out the window after WW2 – circa 1947. It's been getting worse and worse every year since then)

¹⁷ Thou shalt make thee no molten gods. (We don't worship Christian symbols like crosses. We only post crosses to show that we are Christians. The cross is a symbol to pay homage to God's sacrifice for us on the cross. HE was murdered at the hands of Kenites and pagans)

¹⁸ The feast of unleavened bread shalt thou keep. Seven days thou shalt eat unleavened bread, as I commanded thee, in the time of the month Abib: for in the month Abib thou camest out from Egypt. (God saved them from slavery in Egypt. And yet, people adopted the heathen ways right after they arrived in the Promised Land)

(Also, after Jesus Christ came, it took less than a century for the church to pollute itself right back by including Ishtar worship into what was Passover. They did that to increase their membership and tithes. This new "feast day" became known as Easter – still celebrated today. Christians ignorantly believe that only the Jews should celebrate Passover)

¹⁹ All that openeth the matrix is mine; and every firstling among thy cattle, whether ox or sheep, that is male. (Openeth the matrix = the first born)

(The words "that is male" were added to the English translations. They were not in the Hebrew manuscripts)

sons thou shalt redeem. And none shall appear before me empty. (An ass is an unclean animal and not fit for sacrifice to God)

²¹ Six days thou shalt work, but on the seventh day thou shalt rest: in earing time and in harvest thou shalt rest. (earing time = plowing and crop sowing time)

²² And thou shalt observe the feast of weeks, of the firstfruits of wheat harvest, and the feast of ingathering at the year's end.

²³ Thrice in the year shall all your men children appear before the LORD God, the God of Israel. (Pentecost is our May 9)

(God made three feasts in the year – Passover, Pentecost, and the Feast of Trumpets in the fall. During these week long feasts, they would make sacrifices to God and read the scriptures in whole <the Bible, today> to the people)

NOTE: (Today, you're lucky if you hear one verse from the scriptures in a typical Christian service. Instead people hear a 1 hour sermon written by a preacher. That's not what God told us to do)

²⁴ For I will cast out the nations before thee, and enlarge thy borders: neither shall any man desire thy land, when thou shalt go up to appear before the LORD thy God thrice in the year. (If they keep these holy days, God will make sure that they are protected from all nations who would be enemies and invaders)

²⁵ Thou shalt not offer the blood of my sacrifice with leaven; neither shall the sacrifice of the feast of the passover be left unto the morning. (Leaven was symbolic of sin)

(Jesus said – beware of the leaven of the Pharisees. Beware of the false doctrines of organized religion today)

²⁶ The first of the firstfruits of thy land thou shalt bring unto the house of the LORD thy God. Thou shalt not seethe a kid in his mother's milk. (This would be an insult to the animal that was slaughtered to feed the people. Milk is meant to feed the young. To cook an animal in its mother's milk is adding insult to injury. Have some compassion for God's creatures)

²⁷ And the LORD said unto Moses, Write thou these words: for after the tenor of these words I have made a covenant with thee and with

Israel. (These are the statutes and ordinances. The law is the Ten Commandments)

²⁸ And he was there with the LORD forty days and forty nights; he did neither eat bread, nor drink water. And he wrote upon the tables the words of the covenant, the Ten Commandments. (Jesus fulfilled the statutes and the blood ordinances. The Ten Commandments however are always valid. They are the law now and forever. Jesus said – I change not one jot or tittle of the Law) Matrthew-5:18

²⁹ And it came to pass, when Moses came down from mount Sinai with the two tables of testimony in Moses' hand, when he came down from the mount, that Moses wist not that the skin of his face shone while he talked with him.

³⁰ And when Aaron and all the children of Israel saw Moses, behold, the skin of his face shone; and they were afraid to come nigh him.

NOTES: (The Septuagint <the Greek translation of the Hebrew manuscripts> mistakenly changed the word "karan" to keren". Karan means that Moses face glowed from being in the presence of God. Keren means two horns)

(This is why that sometimes, the ignorant people draw pictures of Moses with two bright horns coming from his head. This is ignorance by would-be scholars who don't know what they are talking about) See images below.

³¹ And Moses called unto them; and Aaron and all the rulers of the congregation returned unto him: and Moses talked with them.

³² And afterward all the children of Israel came nigh: and he gave them in commandment all that the LORD had spoken with him in mount Sinai. (They seem to be obeying God this time)

³³ And till Moses had done speaking with them, he put a veil on his face.

³⁴ But when Moses went in before the LORD to speak with him, he took the veil off, until he came out. And he came out, and spake unto the children of Israel that which he was commanded. (Moses went into the tabernacle when he communed with God. That was the purpose of it)

(After the crucifixion of Jesus, the veil of the temple was ripped from top to bottom. Today, we don't need a priest to commune with God. We can do it directly, in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ)

³⁵ And the children of Israel saw the face of Moses, that the skin of Moses' face shone: and Moses put the vail upon his face again, until he went in to speak with him.
